

MONASH
College

Essay Writing Revising TEEEL

Essay Question

Should MUFY students wear school uniforms?

Essay Question

- ❑ What is your overall view?
- ❑ MUFY students should NOT wear uniforms!

Essay Structure

- Introduction
- Body Paragraphs
- Conclusion

Writing a Body Paragraph

- ❑ Focused on one idea or argument that supports your overall view
- ❑ Should follow the TEEEL structure

Topic Sentence

Explanation

Example

Explanation

Linking Sentence

Topic Sentence

Transition Word

Thesis

Main Idea

First, it can be argued that MUFY students should not wear school uniforms because they do not allow creative students to be

Topic Sentence

Explanation

Example

Explanation

Linking Sentence

Writing a Paragraph

Give your readers further information about your main idea.

First, it can be argued that MUFY students should not wear school uniforms because they do not allow students to be creative. In other words, wearing school uniforms prevents students from being imaginative by forcing them to wear a standard attire every day.

Explanation of topic sentence

Topic Sentence

Explanation

Example

Explanation

Linking Sentence

Example

Support your main idea with an example or evidence

Ensure you include citations!

First, it can be argued that MUFY students should not wear school uniforms because they do not allow students to be creative. In other words, wearing school uniforms prevents students from being imaginative by forcing them to wear a standard dress. ~~Smith~~ (2010) points out that students who wear school uniforms scored lower on creativity and individuality on creativity tests, compared to students who were given the freedom to wear their own attire to school.

Transition word

Citation

Reporting verb

Example/Evidence

Topic Sentence

Explanation

Example

Explanation

Linking Sentence

Example Explanation

Wherever an example goes, an explanation must follow!

Explanation (of example)

Elaborate on the example. What does the example tell you?

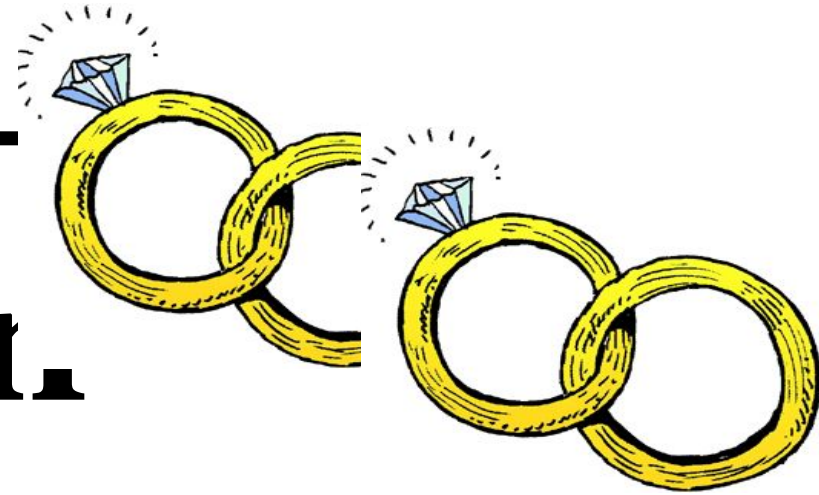

First, it can be argued that MUFY students should not wear school uniforms because they do not allow students to be creative. In other words, wearing school uniforms prevents students from being imaginative by forcing them to wear a standard attire every day. For example, Smith (2010) points out that students who wear school uniforms scored lower on creativity tests compared to students who were given the freedom to wear their own clothing. This suggests that something as simple as wearing uniforms has a great impact on the development of students' abilities.

Example

Explanation

Examples + Explanation.

Remember, to further support your main idea, you can always provide more examples, as long as you remember to explain them!

Topic Sentence

Explanation

Example

Explanation

Linking Sentence

Linking sentence

End your paragraph with a sentence that ties everything together, and links your paragraph back to the question.

First, it can be argued that MUFY students should not wear school uniforms because they do not allow students to be creative. In other words, wearing school uniforms prevents students from being imaginative by forcing them to wear a standard attire every day. For example, Smith (2010) points out that students who wear school uniforms scored lower on creativity tests, compared to students who were given the freedom to wear their own attire to school. This shows that something as simple as wearing uniforms has a greater impact on the development of students' abilities. Therefore, it is already evident that students should not have uniformed attire as it will negatively impact their creativity.

Transition word

Thesis

Main idea

Topic Sentence: Transition word + thesis + main idea

Explanation

 Example: Transition word + reporting verb + citation

Explanation

Linking Sentence: Transition word + thesis + main idea

Body Paragraph

First, it can be argued that MUFY students should not wear school uniforms because they do not allow students to be creative. In other words, wearing school uniforms prevents students from being imaginative by forcing them to wear a standard attire every day. For example, Smith (2010) points out that students who wear school uniforms scored lower on creativity tests, compared to students who were given the freedom to wear their own attire to school. This shows that something as simple as wearing uniforms has a great impact on the development of students' abilities. Therefore, it is clearly evident that MUFY students should not have uniformed attire as it will negatively impact their creativity.

Topic Sentence

Explanation

Example

Explanation

Linking Sentence

Time for practice!